Digital Health Score Summary

What can your church do to improve your digital outreach strategy to engage those who are lost, hurting, and seeking the truth of the gospel message?

Your Church's Total Digital Health Score

If you're surprised by your digital health score, you are not alone. Most churches are in the same boat.

79% of churches

feel they don't "have a well-defined digital ministry" for engaging nonbelievers or people outside their church community.
